

DR. GYÖRGY TESICS

I was born and raised in Novi Sad, Yugoslavia, but I have been living in Budapest, Hungary since 2000. As for my profession, I run a dental clinic in Budapest where I work as a specialist in Periodontology and oral medicine.

I had my first afghan hounds in 1986, and from that moment on I have been very passionate about the beauty, character, speed, and power of all sighthound breeds.

I have been breeding afghan hounds for 15 years and I have had 13 afghan hound litters under the kennel name Ben Ben's, FCI 2233. At that time, I established a dog magazine called „Moj Pas” (My Dog). This was the first dog specialized magazine in Yugoslavia of which I was the chief editor for the first 4 years.

Some 25 years ago I discovered a very special breed – Sloughi. I found the breed to be perfect for me. Since then I have been actively exhibiting the breed on dog shows and participating with my Sloughies on the Lure coursing.

My judging career began in 1991, when I became a judge for all breeds in FCI group 10. Along the way I completed exams for FCI groups 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and part of group 1. In 2003 I also became a judge for Lure Coursing. From 2020 I am approved to judge BIS.

Judging assignments have taken me to many prestigious shows around the world. I have judged dogs on national and international shows, club specialties, and Lure coursings in more than 30 countries across Europe, Australia, Asia, and North America. Finally, in 2017 I became a member of the board of judges of the Hungarian Kennel Club. I am actively taking part in education programs for judges in the Hungarian kennel club, including presenting at club seminars about different topics in dog breeding.

Apart from my native Serbian language I am fluent in Hungarian, German, and English.

RASMA ERGLE

My name is Rasma Ergle. From childhood I had a variety of dogs, but my journey to the world of Cynology started in 1995 when I bought my first two Borzois. In 2002 my borzoi kennel „Zvjozdnij“ was registered.

I am involved in the activities of Latvian Sighthound Club for more than 25 years, also as Board Member and Breeding Manager.

Currently I am a member of LKF (Latvian Cynology Federation) Show and Judges Commissions.

I was authorized as Group Judge for FCI Group 10 in 2012 and for FCI Group 5 in 2021. I am international Judge with significant experience in judging Speciality dog shows in various countries, including Baltic and Nordic countries.
